My dear Mr White,

You will remember that I talked to you about a Family Tablet in Christ Church and you stated that you would lay the matter before the Vestry of the Church.

I have waited with patience to hear from you, but I have received nothing and so finding the Rev Dr Stevens letter to you I determined to send it to you and to ask you what has been done about my petition for a Tablet?

You will see by this letter of Dr Stevens that he returned the money to my mother.

Of course any such sums as he mentions would be impossible for me to give for such an object.

I do hope my dear Mr White that you will do what you can for me in this matter.

If this tablet is not put up now it never will be for I am the only person in the family willing to go to the expense and trouble of so doing.

This memorial should be in Christ Church - There men well among the most distinguished persons in the Church. Such the name of His Excellency Gov Read a signer of the 1st petition to the King and one of the six signers of the Declaration of Independence who also signed the Constitution of the U.S. Acting Governor of Delaware during the Revolution chief justice of the Same - U.S.

Senator twice elected 1st and 2nd Senate. Judge of the National Prize Court of Admiralty during the every branch - is not of little importance. His son John Read whose vault is in the Same yard was one of the leaders of the Philadelphia bar a man of great learning. He was Keeper of Holden
His portrait is in the Philadelphia Bank along with George Clymer "The Signer" his uncle! I should think the people in Christ Church would only be too glad to have these gens names remembered as connected with them.

Thanking you in advance for any thing that you may do for me. I believe me to be

My dear Mr. White:

Your favor of the 17th inst. addressed to William Masters Camac Esq, has been received by me. Mr. Camac is in Europe and does not expect to be back here for some time. I see there is among a lot of things he left with me to look after for him, during his absence, one asking me early in January to send you a cheque for $75. for use of Christ Church Burial Grounds. This I will do at the proper time; as to whether this sum is to be an annual payment to the Church I cannot say. I have no papers to show this. Probably you can tell by refering to the will of his sister Mary Eva Camac Lewis on file in Philadelphia.

Yours very truly,
